Cheadle Get Connected is a striving community interest company, committed to improving the health, well-being and social inclusion of our community; bringing together all, working towards a stronger and brighter future for all, aiming to revolutionise the way the neighbourhood works.

We work at connecting the individuals, businesses, groups and societies in and around the area. Apart from monthly and annual gatherings and events, our networking strategies aim to reduce isolation and improve the well-being of others. Connecting people to new or old hobbies, sharing information and supporting community projects.

Our most recent achievements include a successful intergenerational event, attracting over 350 people to come together, connect and enjoy. We have started a local makers event and aim to promote bespoke talents and trades. Our ongoing work involves marketing and advertising local events, groups and causes; through the development of noticeboards, touchscreens, an age friendly community map and a travelling community hub.

The directors have spent the last year building the community interest company from all different aspect, to ensure the strategies have been built and structured with feedback and support from the community. Apart from a better place for all, we aim to see Cheadle as an Age and Dementia friendly village, spreading compassion and ensuring the well-being of others is improved.
