Summary:

The Neighbourhoods Team have received an event application from the Heald Green Festival Committee to hold the annual Heald Green Community Festival on Saturday 27th June between 12 and 5pm which organisers anticipate that up to 2500 visitors will attend, access is required between 8am and 6pm for set up and take down

The Playing fields will house a fairground, a variety of charitable and commercial stalls offering the provision of ice cream, barbeque, hot and cold food and drinks including alcohol, for which a temporary events notice will be applied for. The addition of fun activities for the younger members of the community will include face painting, bouncy castle and sporting activities. A PA system will be set up and used throughout the festival for announcements and music.

Recommendation(s):

The Neighbourhood Team recommends that the application be approved subject to all the relevant paperwork and licences being obtained and submitted to the Council at least one week prior to the event taking place and the payment of any associated events fees and charges.
