We are looking at setting up a website for the community of Compstall. Whilst it will be mainly for the Compstall Community Council. It will not be just for the community council but will be shared with other groups in the village who don't have such a medium. Such as the Friends of Etherow. It will also have links to other groups in the village such as the church and Compstall Cricket Clubs who have their own websites. There will also be links to Facebook pages of local groups and be content such as information about Compstall, Etherow Country Park as well as sections of historic photographs of the village. Basically, we are hoping it will be the one stop shop for everything Compstall related. We are trying to do for Compstall what the Marple website does for Marple
