Item not for publication

5. APPEAL A218

The Committee considered a grievance appeal from an employee of Stockport Direct Services. The employee and his colleague attended the meeting and presented his case.

It was then

RESOLVED - (1) That because the Appellant agreed he was properly described as a shift worker, the allowances relevant to his conditions of employment were as detailed in Section 5(b) of the White Book which this Committee agree had been correctly applied in this case.

(2) That this Committee would like to see the issues raised by the Appellant taken into account during local negotiations towards a revised pay and conditions structure scheduled to come into effect in April 2007.

The meeting closed at 11.35 am.
