Prevention of crime and disorder

- (a) An alarm or other security measure installed at the premises to protect it when closed or empty
- (b) Emergency exits alarmed when the premises are open to the public so that staff are immediately notified of unauthorised opening or tampering.
- (c) Any staff or private areas and cellars kept locked and secured whilst the premises are open to the public.
- (D) CCTV will be installed inside and outside the premises. The cameras will cover all internal areas accessible to the public and areas immediately outside the premises. The date and time settings on the system will be correct
- (e) The recordings in real time and on hard drive with the availability to copy disks for other agencies such as the police.
- (f) For analogue systems, tapes will be changed daily and used no more than 12 times.
- (g) Recordings will be kept for a minimum period of 31 days.
- (h) Staff will be trained in the maintenance and operation of such systems with a record kept of the date and name of person trained. Records will be made available for inspection by the police or licensing authority.
- (i) A trained member of staff will be on duty to operate the system whenever the premises are open .
- (J) External lighting provides an obvious means of crime deterrence. Care will be taken so that lighting does not impact on neighbours.
- (k) Security systems will be integrated so that the alarm, CCTV and lighting work together in an effective manner.
- (l) The alarm will be linked to a system that will notify the police if it is activated.
- (M) Premises will be searched inside and out for suspect packages before, during and after opening hours. Staff will be trained to remain vigilant during opening hours and report any suspicious activity to the Police.
- (n) Daily staff briefing and debriefing will enable licensees to improve working practices in their premises.
- (o) Briefings can be informal but any problems identified and remedial action taken should be recorded with records kept in the main office.

Challenge 25 protection of children

- (a) A documented policy setting out measures to licensed premises protect children from harm will be in place at the premises. The policy will consider all activities associated with the premises including the sale of alcohol
- (b) The admittance of children can only be permitted if they are accompanied by an adult.
Underage sales of alcohol
- (c) we Operate a strict 'No ID – No Sale' policy.
alcohol 'Challenge 21' scheme serves as a reminder to staff of the need to be vigilant in preventing underage sales and to customers that it is against the law for anyone under 18 to purchase alcohol.
- (d) A 'Challenge 25' scheme gives staff additional support and encouragement to ask for ID from any person appearing to be under 25 years of age to prove that they are over 18.
- (e) we Only accept photographic driving licences, passports or PASS (Proof of Age Standards Scheme) cards approved as means of ID.
- (f) we prompts to remind staff to ask for proof of age.
- (g) we Prominently advertise the scheme in my premises so that customers are aware, in particular, display proof of age signs at the point of sale.

we Display posters at the premises stating that it is an offence to purchase alcohol on behalf of an underage person (proxy sales).

Adverts or promotions for alcohol should not appeal to young persons.

(h) we Keep a refusals book (or refusal button on EPOS – Electronic Point of Sale) on the premises and ensure it is completed whenever a sale is refused to a person who cannot prove they are over the age of 18.

(i) The book will contain the date and time of the incident, a description of the customer, the name of the staff member who refused the sale, and the reason the sale was refused.

(j) The book will be made available to Police and authorised Council officers on request

(k) The book should be reviewed on a regular basis to see if any patterns emerge

(l) Staff training in the age related sections of the Licensing Act 2003 will be provided to all till staff. This includes the ability to competently check customers' identification where necessary.

(m) A record should be kept of the date and name of person trained
