6. Please describe the main activities of your Organisation/ Group

The group has historically offered practical support to Stockport County FC in terms of resource and initiative with regard to subsidised children's tickets, staffing of the community foundations mental health initiatives, organised museum tours and the provision of kit to ball boys/girls. Additionally the group has provided funds to support the club's youth teams and provided both funds and resource to maintain and refurbish parts of the stadium and training ground(s). Given the twin effects of both the club's takeover in 2020 and the Covid pandemic the group has expanded its efforts into the community with regard to food and toy provision to needy recipients as well as offering funding and support to a number of worthwhile causes.
