Due to the volatility in the market of COVID-19 related products, all quotations and pro-forma invoices may be subject to change or alteration. If after payment we are unable to supply any products due to restrictions or other reasons, a full refund will be given and we have no further obligations.

Any quotations or pro-forma invoices for flu clinics are subject to change dependent upon the COVID alert level and any restrictions in place at the time of delivery. Should your clinic be affected, we will contact you nearer the time to discuss this further.
