The powder paint is eco-friendly, non-toxic, child safe, animal safe and washes away in the following rain if not already absorbed/dissolved in the soil. The quantities of paint are also not extreme. The area will be cordoned off to ensure the children stay within a designated area and a further external cordon to allow for over throwing to ensure no members of the public accidently stumble across if. Posters will also be attached to cordons to provide details of what is taking place. All areas will be inspected prior to the event, removing any dog mess, litter and other hazardous items.
